LEGAL NOTE: All climbing is very dangerous & always at your own risk. Nobody is forcing you to climb. You choose to climb, so choose to go home before the risks become too high. Remember even small injuries can take 6 weeks to heal. No responsibility for inaccurate or incomplete information will be accepted by the scribe or any other body. The landowners accept no liability at all. Climbers take full responsibility for themselves at all times. Fixed protection will become unreliable, loose rock is common, solid rock becomes loose & RD writers make up most of the information, with a beer, at the computer. This RD is only a guide & is no substitute for experience, training, common sense & a touch of caution. So you are on your own...take care!

ACCESS: Access is via Tyson Baars at this stage. There are gate guards.

WALK IN: +-400m. Easy path.

TIME & WEATHER: Faces south east. Shaded from 12H00 in summer.

POTENTIAL: Quite a lot!

GENERAL: 32 routes; 16 sport routes, 4 sport projects, 2 double pitch sport routes & 16 trad lines.

ROCK TYPE: Vertical quartzite.

HISTORY: There are sand mussel shells in the cave below the main crag that indicate that the cave was occupied by Bushman or Khoekhoe. Possible it was on a seasonal migration path. Henry Lichtenstein in his book Travels in Southern Africa 1803 – 1806 reported a Khoekhoe settlement on the heights above the van Stadens River crossing.

Tyson's Crag is the large brown face visible from Lady's Slipper. All the years climbers have looked down from the Slipper and wondered about this crag. Finally in 2016 Tyson Baars, a Blue Horizon Bay local, looked at the crag & said he thought it was on his buddie's farm. The following weekend we had access organized & started to find our way in. It was hard work. The bush is hectic. After a day of hard bundu bashing no real rock was seen. A few months later another trip saw a few trad routes opened, nothing really worth while. This time we bashed our way to the stream at the bottom of the valley. From there we saw a fore shortened view of the main face. It looked short, but decent rock. Weeks later another trip had us abseiling into the crag & bashing our way out.

HAZARDS:

Loose Rock: There is a fair amount of loose rock that is still coming off the routes, as well as tons lying loose on top. Wear your helmet... it's a smart thing to do! Chicks dig helmets!

Snakes: Look out for snakes. Various puffadders & boomslangs have been spotted.

- 20. Hiraeth – 19 38m Derek Marshall & Terence Trevaskis 09/12/2018 (T)
Up the prominent break between the sport lines. The rock is lovely, but it is a bit dirty & vegetated. When it cleans off it will be a cool route.
- 21. I'm Receiving This – 22★★★ 30m Derek Marshall & Ruben Snyman 31/03/2019 (16B&C)
- 22. Closed Project ~ 23 Bolted by Derek Marshall (16B&C)
- 23. Burying the Dead – 21 Derek Marshall & Blaine Camons 09/12/2018 (T)
P1 – 19 – 15m Up the L facing prominent open book, past a tree to a good ledge.
P2 – 21 – 32m Over two very precarious boulders & up L facing prominent open book. Continue up over easier ground.
This will improve when it cleans up.
- 24. Bite Your Teeth – 18 ★ Derek Marshall, Tyson Baars & John Alexander 02/12/2018
Bolted by Tyson Baars.
P1 – 18 - 22m (10B&C)

These routes are reached by scrambling down to the top of the fin, then abseiling into the base of the fin.

26. Infatuated By the Light – 16 15m Derek Marshall & Ruben Snyman 13/01/2019 (T)

Up R facing open book. At the constriction, move out R & then back L to the top.

27. Living the Impossible – 19 ★ 15m Derek Marshall & Ruben Snyman 13/01/2019 (T)

Up the middle of the ramp. Through the gap at the top. Directly through first overhang & move a little R on the final overhang.

28. Save My Soul – 14 15m Ruben Snyman & Derek Marshall 13/01/2019 (T)

Up prominent fist crack, move out R to avoid overhang near the top.

29. Take Your Breath – 16 ★★ 23m Derek Marshall & Terence Trevaskis 06/01/2019 (T)

Up prominent R facing ramp open book.

30. Fire Control – 19 ★★★ 26m Derek Marshall & Terence Trevaskis 06/01/2019 (T)

Up the fine crack in the middle of the rib. At the ledge, up the arête to the overhang, step L onto block & out.

The following routes are round the corner on the Lady's Slipper side. If you are facing the "crag" its basically the first splat of rock on the R that is reasonably clean.

1. Other Enemies – 17 25m Derek Marshall & Tyson Baars 29/10/2017 (T)

Through the overhang under the rib arête. Directly through, then keep up the ramp arête all the way to the trees.

2. Desperate Effort – 13 25m Derek Marshall & Tyson Baars 29/10/2017 (T)

Up indistinct easy break. This line is cleanish, does not have impossible roves or shitty ledges.
